

S34Growth Extension: Scotland Visit Agenda

1st-2nd June 2022, Glasgow, Scotland

Wednesday 1st June 2022

VENUE: The Maldron Hotel, 50 Renfrew Street, Glasgow, G2 3BW

Time	Agenda
8:30	Registration and coffee
9:00	Welcome and introduction James Coggs, Scottish Enterprise, S34Growth Scotland Project Manager
9:15	Scotland's Response and Resilience to the Covid-19 Pandemic – Manufacturing Perspective. Dr Andy McLaughlin, Programme Manager Economic Opportunities, Scottish Enterprise
Scotland's Manufacturing Recovery and Future Economy
9:45	Making Scotland's Future – Scotland's long term response to manufacturing recovery Nick Shields, Head of Business Growth (Scottish Manufacturing Advisory Service), Scottish Enterprise
10:15	Scottish Enterprise's National Programmes Overview Suzanne Sosna, Director of Economic Opportunities, Scottish Enterprise
10:30	Coffee break
Scotland's Commitment to International Collaboration
10:45	Overview of Scotland's priorities for innovation and international collaboration Adrian Gillespie, Chief Executive, Scottish Enterprise.

	Future Economy National Programmes and Opportunities for International Collaboration
11:00	National Programme Focus – Hydrogen and Zero Emissions Heavy Duty Vehicles Overview of the opportunity and scope for international collaboration Veronica Noone, Team Leader Low Carbon Transition &amp; Lorna Edward, Team Leader Low Carbon Transport
11:30	National Programme Focus – Future Healthcare Manufacturing Overview of the opportunity and scope for international collaboration Paul Foley, Project Manager for Future Healthcare Manufacturing
12:00	National Programme Focus – Decarbonising Heat Overview of the opportunity and scope for international collaboration Richard Buxbaum, Specialist Low Carbon Transition.
12:30	Lunch followed by bus to the Technology &amp; Innovation Centre (TIC), University of Strathclyde
	Place Based Innovation Assets – Industrial Tour
14:00	Glasgow’s Innovation Districts Overview of Glasgow’s Innovation District landscape: Glasgow City Innovation District (GCID), Clyde Gateway Innovation District, Glasgow Riverside Innovation District (GRID) and the Advanced Manufacturing Innovation District Scotland (AMIDS). Patrick Hannay and Ellen Stevenson, Project Managers for Innovation and Place, Scottish Enterprise; Alistair Gunn, GCID Project Director
17:00	Drop off in City Centre
19:15	City Centre pick up (Location tbc) Dinner – Two Fat Ladies @ The Buttery, Argyle Street, Glasgow.

Thursday 2nd June 2022

VENUE: The Maldron Hotel, 50 Renfrew Street, Glasgow, G2 3BW

Time	Agenda
9:00	Welcome coffee
9:15	Recap on Day 1 James Coggs, Scottish Enterprise
9:30	Areas for Potential Future Collaboration Discussion session reflecting on the topics presented in Day 1 and areas of mutual interest  Facilitated by AnnMarie Reid, Scotland Europa
11:00	Coffee break
11:15	S34Growth Legacy Potential Discussion session on wider opportunities for joint working  Facilitated by Valentine Willmann, Scotland Europa
12:30	Lunch
13:15	Co-Creation Policy Drafts Discussion on final outputs for S34Growth.  Facilitated by Esa Kokkonen, The Baltic Institute of Finland
14:45	Closing remarks and final discussion points